Overseen by “well-traveled” owner Andy Besch (“author of The Wine Guy”), this “charming” Upper Westsider boasts “one of the best selections of moderately priced” bottles around (mixed with some “premium” picks), all “displayed properly” and tended by a “superb” staff; it aims to make “interesting” sipping affordable, and neophytes who “don’t know the difference between a Cabernet and a cabaret” can “trust them” for “lots of great tips.”
